CHILDREN & ADOLESCENT MINISTRIES' SABBATH

The 2026 Children's Sabbath theme, "XOXO Jesus: Made With Love & Sent From Above," invites the entire congregation—children and adults alike—to rediscover their identity as God's beloved. This year's focus moves beyond what we do for God, to who we are in Him—cherished, chosen, and sent as living expressions of His love to the world.

The "XOXO" in our theme represents the affectionate symbols of hugs and kisses, but it also echoes the heartbeat of the Gospel: divine love expressed and shared. From Genesis to Revelation, Scripture is a collection of love letters— messages written by a God who continually reaches out to His children. In 2 Corinthians 3:3, Paul reminds believers, "You show that you are a letter from Christ… not written with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts."

Every believer, regardless of age, becomes part of God's ongoing story —a living testimony of His grace and affection. For children, this truth establishes a foundation of worth and belonging that shapes their faith for life. For adults, it offers a powerful reminder that the love of Christ is not abstract but deeply personal - sent from above and made with love.

As we gather for this year's Children's Sabbath, each "letter" shared in the program will highlight an aspect of who we are in Christ: loved, forgiven, chosen, courageous, and sent.

Through storytelling, worship, and inter-generational participation, our children will help us see that God's message of love is still being written—through their voices, their service, and their joy.

May this theme remind every generation that God's love is not just something to study—it's something to live, to share, and to send forward. Let us open the letters of grace He's written on our hearts and say together, with gratitude and conviction:

"XOXO Jesus: Made With Love & Sent From Above."
